

© Bruno Bonansea

STRING QUARTET

GoYa Quartet

Sylvia Huang, violin · Hani Song, violin · Saeko Oguma, alto · Honorine Schaeffer, cello

The GoYa Quartet brings together orchestral expertise from the Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra and La Monnaie, creating a rich, dynamic quartet sound. The quartet has performed at Europe's most prestigious venues and collaborated with renowned artists as Danel Quartet, Lucie Horsch and Klaus Mäkeläh. Their versatile repertoire spans the classical elegance of Haydn and Schubert, the expressive modernity of Britten and Bartók, and the captivating beauty of works by Imogen Holst and Amy Beach. Their 2024 debut album Autumn Leaves received widespread acclaim, earning 5 stars and a "Cum Laude" from Luister, with Lex Bohlmeijer calling it "entrancing...likely one of the most beautiful albums of the year."

Territory: Europe (except NL, IT & CH) - general management