Julien Brocal

Named BBC Music Magazine's "Revelation of the Year" in 2018, Franco-Belgian pianist Julien Brocal has established himself on the international stage with a poetic and deeply personal approach to the piano. Discovered by Maria João Pires, he performs in prestigious venues such as Wigmore Hall, the Philharmonie de Paris, and New York's Town Hall, and regularly collaborates with cellist Camille Thomas, including on a Chopin triple album for Deutsche Grammophon. A pianist, composer, and improviser, he also leads committed artistic and educational projects.
