

© Jérôme Justine

PIANO

Vittorio Forte

French-Italian pianist Vittorio Forte is celebrated for his refined and expressive playing, exploring with curiosity and originality a repertoire ranging from C. P. E. Bach and Couperin to Earl Wild's transcriptions and the works of Medtner. His inventive programs and remarkable recordings have been highly praised by the press, earning him ICMA nominations in 2014 and 2020. His most recent album, Volver (Mirare), is dedicated to Latin American piano music as a personal and artistic tribute to his mentors and teachers. He performs regularly at prestigious festivals such as La Roque d'Anthéron, Radio France, La Folle Journée de Nantes, and Chopin à Nohant, and has appeared in iconic venues including Salle Cortot in Paris, Victoria Hall in Geneva, Konzerthaus Berlin, and Fundación Juan March in Madrid, combining musical depth with authentic expression.

Territory: Benelux